About APAIE

The Asia-Pacific Association for International Education is a non-profit organisation that seeks to activate and reinforce the internationalisation of higher education in the Asia-Pacific region and around the world. It aims at promoting best practice and collaboration for academic excellence by facilitating greater cooperation among those responsible for higher education and enhancing the quality of international programmes, activities and student mobility. APAIE was established in 2004 with CUHK as one of the 13 founding members from the Asia-Pacific region, and its secretariat is based in Australia. Since 2006, the APAIE Conference and Exhibition has been held annually at a different city each year to provide a platform for exchange and collaboration among educators.
